

Name _____

Date _____
(Answer ID # 0363549)

Predicates

Circle the predicate in each sentence.

1. David was considered the foremost candidate for the job.
2. The donations were used a seed money to begin the new project.
3. Some teenagers get temporary jobs for the summer.
4. You are capable of talking and walking at the same time.
5. Judge Jones was thought of as the foremost citizen of our city.
6. We will go to Lorton, Virginia, to ride the Amtrak train.
7. My shirt is very soft and is made of cotton.
8. Jennifer is a very shallow person who only likes someone if they have a lot of money.
9. My mother will forbid me to color on the walls of our house.
10. The rabbit stuck its head out of the burrow.
11. Bobby stepped on a piece of metal and cut his foot.
12. It is better to tell the truth than to tell a lie.
13. Dr. Nello received high praise for his work on the research project.
14. The evil of war is that a lot of people are killed or injured.
15. I want to devote all my energy into learning how to program a computer.