

Name _____

Date _____
(Answer ID # 0442876)

Subjects

Circle the subject in each sentence.

1. Dean could read when he was four.
2. The butterflies seemed to float around us.
3. The sudden death of the hamster was very tragic.
4. Nancy will astound her readers with the conclusion of the book.
5. J.R.R. Tolkien wrote the book Lord of the Rings that was later developed into a movie.
6. The surface of our car had dents caused by the hail.
7. The people were sullen at the funeral of their loved one.
8. All sentences should begin with capital letters.
9. Betty's only problem is that she lacks confidence in her ability to speak in public.
10. We are content to stay home and watch a movie on the television.
11. We won the game as a result of our great teamwork.
12. My dad had a cardiac arrest and was rushed to the hospital to have his heart monitored.
13. I lost a bead from my necklace.
14. The front of my shirt is red and the back is blue.
15. We should consider other people's feelings before we speak.